

Finding Book Reviews by Teenagers

❖ Harper Teen

www.harperteen.com

Covers only books published by Harper. Can be selected to read galley copies of Harper books, and write reviews.

Other online book information: Author Tracker, to follow publication schedules of authors; Podcasts, of interviews with authors, and authors reading excerpts of their books.

❖ Teen Reads, part of the Book Report Network

www.teenreads.com

Both teen and adult originated book reviews. Includes biographies of all reviewers.

Other online book information: www.authorsontheweb.com, provides complete listing of all publications of individual authors including correct ordering of books in series.

❖ Teen Ink

www.teenink.com

A monthly print magazine, website, and book series all devoted to fiction written by teens for teens. The website includes more than 16,000 pages of all styles of student writing. Home page has link to teen written book reviews.

❖ Teens' Top Ten Nominations

www.ala.org/teenstopten

Various teens around the country have nominated their favorite books of the year and written reviews of them. Everyone else gets six months to read the books and vote on their favorites!